T&C: Liability: Once you made your party booking with us, paid your deposit, and begin your party arrangements, please note that GDND ACADEMY do not take responsibility for any child who may not be fit to dance, or may experience any injury/illness during your party. We expect that all children are well enough to partake in physical activity. We are not sole careers for the children whilst we host your party. We do not have information on any of the children at your party, and cannot meet individual needs as in our dance classes. Please do not leave the party host in sole charge of your children. At least 1 other adult/party organizer is responsible for the guests you have invited for the duration of the party.

Photo permission: We would kindly like to ask if we could take a picture of your child/party guests with the GDND dance instructor at some point during the party to use for possible GDND ACADEMY party promotion. Please can you help us by circling the following:
